

Cambridge. Oct. 6, 1884

Dear Wright

I wrote to you a few weeks ago, sending my letter through the Navy Department: which was about to despatch to the Pacific, I understood.

No news since. I am printing in the Memoirs of American Academy Flora Nova Mercuriana - i.e. nearly the principal new plants peculiar to that collection. Also a short paper, on the affinities of Varzea, Arctia, & Rhytidandra. May. Two Ficus Mad plants.

The binder reported a missing sheet in your copy of Walpers' Repertorium, vol. 4. I had a blank sheet bound in, and ordered the missing one of the importer - who has just sent it to me. Here it is.

In my last I wrote that I had sent the books to you through the

Oct. 7 find I wrote as late as the 20th inst.

W.S.

Smithsonian & the Navy Department,
I hope you will get them as soon as you do this. - when you can remove the blank-sheet, & paste this in.

I was in New York a month ago - only for 4 days - I may well
I wrote you that Parry is married.

I wish you were out of the Chinese waters, and at the Kunle & the Sandwich Island -

Magnus has not yet got all the drawings done for 1st vol. of Atlas of Botany Expl. Exped. - will in a few weeks.

Brackenridge's volume should be all printed: but it is not yet out, in this news - Yours very cordially,

Asa Gray

Gray, Asa. 1854. "Gray, Asa Oct. 6, 1854." Charles Wright correspondence with Asa Gray

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/257881>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/276729>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.