

Cambridge, 17th Oct. 1858. Every.

Dear Wright

Yesterday I got your favor of the 15th with your accounts from Rodger enclosed.

The same mail brought a letter from Fendler, announcing his arrival at Baltimore, and asking me to send him the funds I had of his to that place. Wanting to send him $200, and having nothing in bank to pay with, I concluded to grab a part of the funds your accounts placed in my hand. So I went to Boston. Drew your $600 (after waiting a long while for the Navy Agent to come in) appropriated $250, and got the enclosed check for 350 - the remainder, which I send you. I must have it forthcoming for you. I suppose when you go to Cuba, will that do?

This paper is vile. I must take another sheet, on which to write the rest of my talk.

Gray, Asa. 1858. "Gray, Asa Oct. 17, 1858." Charles Wright correspondence with Asa Gray

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/257881>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/276744>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.