

Cambridge. Jan. 19, 1864

My dear Mr. Wright.

Although the chance of his finding you just now seems small, I will not on that account omit to give this letter to my pupil, Mr. Kennedy, of the Senior Class in this University, in the hope that he may by its aid make your acquaintance.

Kennedy is an enthusiastic young botanist, and wholly worthy of your kind attention. If you should fortunately meet at Burla, he would delight in taking a trip with you up Loma di Gato, or a Nina-mina, or to any of your interesting stations, and I know you would enjoy a zealous companion.

Wherefore I commend him to your kind offices, and remain, as ever

Yours cordially

Asa Gray

P.S. Your last, Retiro, Dec.
20th crossed mine of later date, which I trust you have got before this. It contained a draft you may like to use.

A.G.

To Charles Wright, Esq.

To introduce

Mr. Kennedy.
