Caneville, Oct. 5. 1864
Dear Wright,

Have you returned from your journey?

I am working for dear life, getting books & specimens into their places in the new conservatory. It has been hard work and slow, but I must get on so as to be ready for the American Academy - which is to meet here Tuesday afternoon the 11th - next Tuesday.
Would you like to come?
Should be glad to see you

If you were here now, you could help ~~me~~ - Some time after I can help you, - but I can't say just when,
I am pretty tired.

Ever yours, A. Gray
Mr. Gray still captured in the house and much regret - Mr

Send best regards,

AS.
