November 16, 1932.

Dear Mr. Schweinfurth:

I was considerably chagrined to learn that you had found some type photographs of orchids at the Gray Herbarium, but much more so when I was altogether unable later to find any trace of them here. Unfortunately we do not have a complete list of the later type photos, but I can scarcely understand how a set of them got to the Gray Herbarium without being mounted here.

If you will let me have the negative numbers of two or three of the prints that you borrowed from the Gray Herbarium, I shall look into the matter, and see that you get a set of them promptly. Also, I should like to have a set of them here! It is barely possible but scarcely probable that Macbride had the prints made in Germany and sent them directly to Cambridge, but I do not believe so.

Sincerely yours,

Paul H. Haudley
