UNITED STATES NATIONAL MUSEUM
WASHINGTON, D. C.

May 31, 1923.

Mr. Oakes Ames,
355 Commonwealth Avenue,
Boston, Massachusetts.

Dear Mr. Ames:

We are forwarding, by express, as a loan, two boxes containing 314 specimens of orchids from Mexico, Central America, and Colombia. This includes all the material mentioned in my letter, and also an accumulation of Central American specimens which I had forgotten about at the time of writing to you. There are also included in the shipment three duplicate specimens which are to be retained by yourself.

Sincerely yours,

Paul C. Standley
Associate Curator,
Division of Plants.
