355 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Mass.

October 24th, 1921.

My dear Dr. Schlechter:

This is just a hurried note to tell you that I have just moved into winter quarters and that I am overwhelmed with work.

I enclose for your acceptance a draft for one hundred dollars. This amount is to be used on the drawing account and I hope it will go a long way toward finishing up the Central American species. Keep me informed as to how these funds hold out.

I have a great mass of questions and suggestions for you, but these must go over until my next letter.

I have not heard from you for several weeks.

Yours sincerely,

Walter Diller
