

225 Bay State Road, Boston, Massachusetts.
February 5, 1935.

My dear Lankester:

Your welcome letters dated January 21 and 25 came in this morning. I was delighted to have evidence of your continued existence.

You enclosed in one of your letters a couple of orchid scraps, one a Pleurothallis the other a Stelis. I suppose you wish to have the names of these? I shall give them a once-over at the herbarium this afternoon.

If you are interested in "succulents" I feel that the thing to do is to write to Mr. R. Grey, Superintendent of the Cuban Garden at Soledad near the city of Cienfuegos. Mr. Grey will be pleased to send to you anything we have in the Garden if there are duplicates. I simply mention my name as having authorized you to write.

Another copy of no. 3 of vol. 3 of Bot. Mus. Leaflet will be sent to you.

My impression is that we are regarding Masdevallia astuta, Gaskel. and erythrochaete as being one species.

With all good wishes,

Wm. B. G. G.

not to
sent.

Ames, Oakes. 1935. "Ames, Oakes Feb. 5, 1935 [to C.H. Lankester]." Oakes Ames Orchid Herbarium correspondence files

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/262811>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/282654>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Harvard University. Anonymous Donor.

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.