

Springside,
Middlebury, Vermont.

Feb. 13, 1911.

Dear Dr. Kennedy:

I reached home yesterday morning after a pleasant visit with our botanical friends at New York. I made the acquaintance of Mr. Philip Small, the new editor of the Bulletin of the Torrey Club, & also editor of the Am. Fern Journal. He is a fine fellow, about forty seven years old.

I am sending by mail the two Caneos you wanted. C. laxiflora var. leptomeria Hemsl. & C. Meadii Dmy (C. tetanica var. of Hamel.)

I must thank you again for the pleasant & restful time I had with you & yours. There was a delightful touch of spring in that Sunday walk. But I find Vermont in the depth of winter with over a foot of snow. With kind remembrances to your daughter,
Sincerely Yours, Ezra Brainerd.
