

"I thank you always with my heart"

"God give you good night!"

Sincerely
with much love to all from Margaret
Walter Deane

Wednesday Feb. 11/914,

29 Brewster Street
Cambridge Mass.

Dear Dr. Renshaw -

I got home all right by 6.30 and found Margaret and Luis Brown awaiting me by the parlor fire. It was cold, but I had no trouble.
Tell Mildred that she saved my life twice to-day.

What do I not owe to her, the muff and the veil.
My face was perfectly comfortable under the veil. Do thank Mildred.

How beautiful the sun was when I departed.

The windows of your parlor were aflame with the same color as the sun, and it was a beautiful good-bye to me.

I did leave such a good time, I do so love to see you all. I have been studying my dictionaries with great interest and they prompt me to begin some French book very soon.

What a mine of information they are. In the Small Lexicon there are half-a-million words and word-signs - See p. viii

I cannot thank you enough for the generous supply - The more I think of Hal's work, the more I am amazed at what he has done. He is one out of a thousand and I stand how proud you are -

Give my kindest love to Miss Ingham & Mildred.
