

Cambridge

Feb. 7, 1915,

Dear Dr. Kennedy,

Thank you very much for the Class Report. It seems almost like a report of my own class since I knew so many men in 1864. Some things I had forgotten as, for instance, that Dorr is your brother-in-law.

There is one striking thing in your report,
the great benevolence
among the graduates of men who were born in Massachusetts. This is explained, however, by the fact that so many of those who did not graduate, came from remote parts of the country and appear to have left to join the Southern army.

Next year our class will have its fiftieth anniversary. Until a few years ago we lost an unusually small number by death but within three or four years the number has been unusually large and by next year we may not have a great many left for our reunion.

Hoping that you will live to see the eclipse of 1925 of which you speak so hopefully, I am,

Yours, very truly,

W. C. Harbor.

Farlow, W. G. 1915. "Farlow, William G. 7 Feb 1915." George Golding Kennedy correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/172899>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/284428>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.