

Leesington, Mar. 20, 1908

Dear Dr. Kennedy,

We were speaking the other day about a little tribute which I wished to present to Professor Biddell on his birthday, April 1.
I have decided to put it in the form of a cheque payable to his order.
The only other way would be to look it under the cover of subscriptions for extra copies of his book, which really amounts to precisely the same thing - a gift. If I understood you aright, you expressed a desire also to show your appreciation of Mr. Biddell's zeal in a cause which meets with almost no recognition in our stolid community. If you are still of this mind I assure ^{you} that any mark of appreciation coming from you will bring a warm ray of sunshine into a most lovable, hard-working and deserving household.

Sincerely yours
Walter Saxon
