

Cambrow Dec 6th 1892

My dear Dr. Kennedy

Today I had to go to a meeting of the Museum faculty and although the meeting took up a short time, I was caught at the Museum by persons who made it necessary for me to go down again this afternoon. Therefore I missed your call. You were very kind to come and see the decrepit, hoarse, and feeble remnant of a Shelburne Shouter. Tonight I can hardly speak aloud, but I think the cold is fairly on the run. Deane has written me how much I lost by being kept from your dinner. I was very anxious to go and see you and some of your classmates, but it was simply out of the question. And

I know that you excused me.

I shall hope to see you very soon either at Readville or here. Please remember me very kindly to Mrs Kennedy and the other members of your family, and accept for yourself all good wishes from

Yours sincerely

G L Woodard

Goodale, George L. 1892. "Goodale, George L. 6 Dec 1892." George Golding Kennedy correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/172898>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/284677>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.