

Two hundred and eighty five
Commonwealth Avenue

February 17, 1914.

Dr. George C. Kennedy,
Readville,
Mass.

Dear Doctor:

I have your favor of the 16th and agree with your proposition to advance fifteen, you, ten but I think these advances better be made on condition that the balance necessary is subscribed by others.

I did not expect the balance to be raised among the other members of the committee but believed that Dr. Robinson would be able to obtain the balance from friends of the Herbarium outside the committee. He will now have a comparatively easy task and I think he will prove equal to it with so large an amount already available. I will confirm the above in a note to Dr. Robinson today.

Very truly yours,

G. S. G. S.
