

Readville, Mass.

12 June 1913

Dear Walter
Thanks for your letter with its news of Dr. Coolidge's condition.
What a wonderful
state of body and mind. To be so near death's door
and come back
to say again Goodbye.
You will never forget these experiences.
The comforting lines
I sent were given me by a friend
when dear Mrs Kennedy left me and I read them often.

I thought they might
comfort other souls,
so I had some copies printed. I send three and can send others
if you wish them.

I have never been able to find the author. Perhaps you may be able to help me in that search.

I remember to have met Mrs Owen once & have one or two letters from her.

She too has lived
a long life on this earth. I always think of Plato's meadow, when I hear of a flower-lover having crossed the deep

river, for my idea of heaven has always been a
green meadow
bathed in bright
sunshine.
May we all meet
there some day.

affectionately yours
Geo. G. Kennedy

P.S. I have written this letter without one word for Margaret
but you know it is for her too —

Kennedy, George G. 1913. "Kennedy, George Golding Jun. 12, 1913." Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/159799>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/289083>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.