My Dear Mr. Davenport:

I thank you sincerely for your kind letter of the 9th inst and for the fern plants, which I have had planted in Bronx, and am very glad to get. I shall take pleasure in reporting the gift to our Managers.

Yes, I too regret that I failed to recognize you at the Arheretum the other day, and hope for better luck another time.

Faithfully yours,
H. L. Britton.
