

Jan. 5th 1913-

Dear Mr. Deane:

I prize your Christmas greetings -
I do not want you to forget me and yet I wonder why you do not.

I am just so very
busy all of the time.
Little children need constant attention.

They are the joy of our lives. and they also

Again we wish you and Mrs Deane the best this the coming year may bring.

Very sincerely yours

Wm. B. Richardson

P. F. D. #1 - Box 12

Young State

are the absorbing feature.

My Mother is with us. - He is past seventy five. and is well and active. - He is baby Helen's devoted slave. -
He insists upon being!

Mr. Richardson is still working away upon the ranch. - if. has more work of a task than we ever anticipated. -

That of converting desert land into all for the friends - but he is now pursuing vigorously across the stock. - When that is done the house building will come next. - and in two or three months time we begin to move down there. - We think it will be a good place for the children -

Richardson, Martha Bebb. 1915. "Richardson, Martha Bebb Jan. 5, 1915."
Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/160596>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/295813>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.