

My dear Deane:

Your note is just at hand. Sorry
my last letter has not yet reached you.
Perhaps it is in one of your lovely snow drifts. What a storm you have had!

We too have had a touch of winter.

A friend remarked ~~that~~ the day that I named my children like I did my plants.

Said I gave them a name and then wrote
Rose after it.

I wrote you in my letter that little Mattie Deane's mother would be pleased with either a pouncing or mug - but that I would vote pouncing. Indeed it is very good of you both to want to send something. But really you ought not to do it.

Not Museum
Feb 3/98

Mr Leslie
J. Rose

Rose, J. N. 1898. "Rose, Joseph Nelson Feb. 03, 1898." Joseph Nelson Rose letters to Walter Deane

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/160655>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/297637>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.