

morning and we felt very lonely without you and this evening only Mr. Rose and I sat down stairs to talk while the children were at church.
The weather is cool and lovely.
The girls and I are invited to a musicale at Mrs. Lue's May 11th to meet some relatives who have settled near the Lue's.
I saw Mr. S. yesterday and she was so cordial and nice.
As the time approaches for Mr.
Rose's departure my heart gets heavier and heavier. It seems so terrible - heart breaking that he should go off alone and leave me behind.
But I have used up the space - so I must say good night. I cannot love to say both and

My dear Deane:

Your little fox came yesterday and was offered with a great deal of interest. You must forgive me when I tell you it brought tears to my eyes. How many times I have offered your packages with the dear dear boy that is gone!
Your little Rose is a real beauty and I shall always think of you when I see it. This afternoon I took it line, Paris & Brooklyn N.Y.

They are all quite well but we miss the Deans so very much.

Give our dearest love to Mrs Deane your friend

Dear Mr. Deane:

Ever Mr. Rose has left a space it seems a pity to send so much blank paper!

The knife is a dear, just like the giver. We miss you both so much. We all went to church this with me when Mrs Rose & George & I took a little walk into the woods beyond the Calvert Street Bridge. The woods are beautiful with the leaves nearly fully grown.

It has been cool & lovely today.
We all went to church today as usual.

I leave here Friday morning.
Will be at the McAlpin Hotel Friday night & Sail Saturday on the S.S. Tennyson, Liverpool & Hobk
