

Washington D.C.

April 5th 1915.

My dear Mr. & Mrs. Deane:

Just a line to tell you
we are counting the days until Friday.

The weather is mild and spring like now - though Saturday we had a great storm.
Snow and wind all day.
Easter was beautiful.

We will meet you Friday night - think of it - this week - I can scarcely believe it - it is too good -

I pray you may come
in all safety.

We all send love.

Most sincerely

Sam Simon Rose.

You would have been interested to see the great crowds of children (black and white) going to the White House and the Zoo - to roll Easter eggs.
The Zoo was closed to all vehicles today - so that children might play in perfect safety - wasn't that lovely?

Mr. Rose leaves tonight for New York for several days - He will be at work with Dr. Britton
