Curator of the Herbarium.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 4 1895

My Dear Deane,

I write you ex cathedra herbarii. You are voted a triumph by all hands - and especially by that dear cuddle May, nestled into your affections. She is now a big shopping girl, but was 12 on the 2^d and the day was dis-served with becoming ceremonies.

Yes; I have in all the notes you sent me. I think, some time I'll send you my MS. That is the best way to extract your chunks of solid wisdom. I flatter myself you will like my work.

Do you know how very ill Eaton is? Little chance of his recovery. My Collins is doing good work. He and I will be scandal upon you some Saturday.
Tell us when. I am ever
W. W. Bailey
