Γουερς ρεκείνεδ,

Yours received, Aug 6. 1906

First Lesson in Geography, the above village is on the shore of Narragansett - between Wickford and the Pier - and about 20 miles from Prov. It is a very pleasant and excellent hotel, now full. There are also quite a number of residents - among them Owen Winter, of the hotel is Mr. Bruce & wife of "The Outlook", two Reserve cutters in harbor and their tugboat "around town" when the night watch is over; also tapes & revellers at proper times, etc. is very well & loved by all. She is tutoring a girl in Bryn Mawr, who took High Certificate in English, is Editor in Chief of the Lantern - and part of Bryn Club, and prospective member of G. W. Club's Essay - the greatest of Bryn Mawr honors. She, I expect, will see a home looking up, Mrs. B. is not leaving this summer, her mother not well enough to leave, On July
