

6 Cushing St. Providence

Dec 27, 1907 -

Dear Friends,

Many & hearty thanks for your very kind remembrance of us all - even the dear Cassie far away in Chicago. Every thing was very quiet with us but Memphis the fact that I was in one of my worst conditions, he had for the whole, a pleasant day. No greater & I was glad of it. Some cousins of Mrs G's came in Thursday night - but then I was glad to see, she is in Boston, at Houghton - every day this week except Monday, and has now sat up two entire nights. It's all wrong, cruel, insane but I am powerless to help it here. The book will be out, I believe next week. Then she is to tackle another. A Happy New Year to you both! Given W. W. B.
