

The tale
was the day.

Providence - Geo Washington, J. R. Lowell & W. W. B. all celebrate their 40th
Feb. 1911

The Last of the I'm hastening to thank thee, dear old friend, for your graceful and very kind present, I like, too the self-memorial passages, I myself am a great one to mark my books & gladden myself it adds to their value, it's Winter's Day at College & I went over (two days) to see if B. L. R. had come, I missed him & Collins In the cold soon drove me home in cynomys pain & I took to my little bed, though not in to it, I had cups of Cauda from a host of friends that day & what, dear boy, gave me 12 cigars, while May wrote she had sent me two books, She knew the Brown girl in college
- but like many one else, is ignorant of her fate! She says she is at, but knows nothing, Did I tell you how I am illustrating my 3d copy of my Poems - in color? Everyone thinks I've done good work, Thank you again, dear my fellow - and again to Chris Deane, the ever off't Darling

THIS SIDE OF CARD IS FOR ADDRESS ONLY

Mr Walter Deane
29 Brewster St
Cambridge
Mass

Bailey, William Whitman. 1911. "Bailey, William Whitman Feb. 22, 1911 [postcard]." Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/164555>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/300886>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.