

East Hartford, Conn.

April 2, 1915

Dear Mr. Deane:-

I wonder if the late Professor Bessey was among the many botanists you have known and, if he was, would you be willing to write a short notice of his life for the Tenn Journal # - not more than two pages, about 600 words? Prof. Bessey was, you know, a member of the American Fern Society and Dr. Benedict wishes to give him an adequate notice. I know we will do it quite sympathetically and well as you.

I am sorry to limit you so strictly as to length but space in the journal is at a premium just now. We should want the notice in time for the next number which we expect to issue about the middle of May.

I have no luck in getting to Club meetings, this winter. Today's is the third I have planned to attend and have been cheated out of by something which came up at the last minute. However, I hope to be in Cambridge before long, for a little work at the hubarium.

I trust all goes well with you - With all good wishes, and cordial regards to Mrs. Deane,

Sincerely yours,

C. F. Weatherly

Weatherby, Charles Alfred. 1915. "Weatherby, Charles Alfred Apr. 2, 1915."
Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/163304>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/304114>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.