

C. A. WEATHERBY
11 WELLS AVENUE
EAST HARTFORD, CONN.

Dec. 30, 1924

Dear Mr. Deane:

Of course I shall be delighted to stay with you and if nothing happens I present will appear at your home on the second of January some time during the latter part of the afternoon. My train is due in Boston about 3³⁰ P. M. But you must not forget that if at any time it is at all so inconvenient for you to have me you mustn't hesitate to say so.

I was looking for the Note under Foreign yesterday and wondered if I had left them with you. Thank you for looking after them.

I hope the cold proved a false alarm.

Is always yours

Alfred Weatherby
