

C. A. WEATHERBY
11 WELLS AVENUE
EAST HARTFORD, CONN.

April 15, 1925

Dear Miss Brown -

As I wrote Mr. Dean, it was a pleasant little surprise that I found on the chair Mrs. Weatherby's note in which she thanks for the pretty card and for the eggs - especially the large chocolate one!

It was characteristically kind of you to want to get breakfast for me; but there was really no need of disturbing your Sunday schedule and I couldn't let you do it. I don't in the least mind going out before breakfast; I am well used to it, both at Cambridge and here, when, in the winter, I attend to my mother's furnace and my own before breakfast.

With kindest thanks for all the comfort and pleasure you give us

Sincerely yours

C. A. Weatherby
