

G. A. WEAVER
11 WELLS AVENUE
EAST HARTFORD, CONN.

March 4, 1924

Dear Mr. Deane:-

In the middle of the night last night I had a telegram announcing Mr. Foster's death at nine o'clock on the evening of the 3rd.
I expect it is better so.

As I wrote you he seemed better when I left but afterward had another turn for the worse and this time did not really rally. The damage done his lungs by the other bronch, in the end, irreparable.

The telegram came too late for me to get to the funeral: I am waiting to hear more from him as to his immediate plans and condition before deciding whether to try to join her again.

Best regards to Miss Bern-sway, as always
