Swansea, Feb. 1913

Dear Mr. Dean,

Through the
"News" which I sent Dr. Coolidge you learned that I received your kind letter on my birthday with congratulations and expression of goodwill and good cheer, from Dr. Coolidge and yourself,
For the kind remembrance please accept my thanks.

The day passed off as happily as could be hoped,
But it goes without

2.

Saying that, <sup>with</sup> my efforts to entertain and the excitement of the occasion I came to realise some degree of fatigue, and mild prostration.

A few days rest, however, restored me to what I was before that date, in second childhood, the normal condition at the age of 95.

Your meeting and interview with my two great nieces was really a singular incident and surprise, and to them a very pleasant one,
I have in Cambridge three nieces. Mrs. Anna Bates of 20 Newidell Street.

Mrs Anna C. Sandford 3 Dana St., whose daughter Georgia has for some years held the place of Secretary to successive mayors of the city, and

Miss Elizabeth S. Brown, 23 Acorn St. daughter of the late W. J. Brown, a former assessor of Cambridge In Boston I am represented two nephews Leonard Stone, who has been <sup>in</sup> the old State Bank for thirty years, his brother Charles Wellington Stone (4:74) head of Stones School, and their sister Mary Wellington Stone, now companion of Mrs Shattuck of 237 Berkeley St.

J.

Charles and his sister each have a residence and home in Templeton. This may not all be interesting to you, but it is possible you might fall in with some of these relatives of mine in the future I meant to have mentioned that I was fitted to enter at Harvard by Mrs Sanborn's father.

Since commencing this writing
I have been greatly pleased in receiving a nice letter from Dr. Coolidge. Please give him my thanks with love as ever.

Yours truly

James Lloyd Wellington.
