Mr. Walter Deane
29 Brewster Street
Cambridge, Mass.

Dear Mr. Deane:

In my paper on Bidens published 1899, I made a mistake in the identification of Linnaeus' B. frondosa. My attention was called to this very soon after by Dr. E. L. Greene, who transferred the name to what I called B. melanocarpa and gave the name B. vulgata to what I had called B. frondosa. The names are correctly used in Gray's Manual. B. melanocarpa becomes a synonym of B. frondosa.

Yours truly,

W/M
