Mr. Walter Deane,
#29 Brewster St.,
Cambridge, Mass.

Dear Deane:--

On my return from a few weeks trip to Florida I find your letter of January 3rd. I take pleasure in forwarding a set of photogravures to your friend, Prof. Bailey and would have done so before had I known he was interested in cryptogams. I am indebted to him for many favors in connection with the Carices. In regard to the Addenda of Drugs and Medicines, I regret to state that owing no doubt to carelessness, we have no copy of the publication on hand at present, and find we have not even a copy of the work in our library. Of course, I would be glad to furnish
