

Sweets Hotel.
N.C. JOHNSON PROPRIETOR.

Grand Rapids, Mich.

Sept. 10 1885-

My Dear Deane:

This is a most beautiful city. I have been here 2 or 3 times before, but never saw so much of the little city as now. It is a neat and compact city of 50,000 people, a city of the most magnificent dwellings I ever saw.

I am of course busy with my exhibit and with noted pomologists. I enclose you a list of the fruits I have on exhibition. My display attracts the most attention of any in the Hall. The Vacciniums are especially fine. To-morrow we leave the "Valley City" and go to my own home to spend Sunday. We return to College next Monday.

I suppose that you are now having a good time in Nantucket.

Yours hastily,
L. H. Bailey, Jr.

I have written Mr. Churchill thanking him for the grapes.
