

Lansing, Mich., Dec. 26, 1886.

My Dear Deane:

Some time since I purchased John Borough's Wake Robin. I was so pleased with it - that I resolved to buy Depaction. What was my surprise and delight to receive that volume from you! You could not have made a better selection. I am under obligations for the remembrance.
The snow is eight inches deep and sleighing is excellent. We take a twist about the city every day.

Remember us both to Mrs. D.

Happy New Year!

Yours truly,

L. H. Bailey, Jr.

Hope you are getting better of your rheumatism.

I have a question to ask: In the mammal the paper which is Petula papyracea of Hitoe. The name is now written P. papyrifera. Do you know who is authority for it? I think Marshall.

Bailey, L. H. 1886. "Bailey, Liberty Hyde Dec. 26, 1886." Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/164238>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/305971>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.