My Dear Deane:

By this time I suppose that you are at home again. We were much disappointed that you should almost pass our door and not look in upon us. We shall not forgive you if you ever do it again.

Our spring has received a sudden check. I will collect all I can of the plants you want. Hepaticas are out.

I have an extra specimen of the new grass — new genus — Bealia Mexicana, and I will send it to you when I send anything again.

Regards from us both ^{to} yourself and Mrs. D.

Yours

L. H. Bailey, Jr.
