Lansing, Mich., Dec. 27 1887

My Dear Deane:

Upon arriving at home Saturday I found the pictures of the ferns, for which you will please accept thanks. They are very nice.

You ought to write a catalogue of Cambridge plants. No one else has so complete a collection of the flora of that vicinity as yourself. The Boston Natural Hist. Soc., or some other organization, would publish it for you.

A week from to-day I start for New York again, this time to remain chiefly at Cornell.

Happy New Year from us both.

Yours ever,
L. H. Bailey, Jr.

I am very thankful for your postals concerning Dr. Gray.
I look for them with eagerness every day.

Bailey, L. H. 1887. "Bailey, Liberty Hyde Dec. 27, 1887." Walter Deane correspondence
