

ITHACA
HOTEL.

H. D. FREER, - - Proprietor.

Ithaca, N. Y., Jan. 19 1888

My Dear Deane:

I am astonished at the news from Dr. Gray. I am almost building hope that he may recover! How wonderful it would be!

I have now but one more lecture to give. I start home tomorrow night. I can scarcely wait to get home. I was never away so long before.

Yet my stay here has been very profitable. I have been through 200 volumes which we do not have at Lansing, over half of them being French.

I have simply read enough of the articles to know if they are of value to me, making record of the fact.
Then I shall send here for the books as I need them.

Cornell is a great University,
especially considering its age.
It is only 20 years old. By the way, I will say to you, strictly sub rosa, that I may come here as one of the faculty. I have the chance.

Remember me to Mrs. D.
Send the carices at any time.

Yours as ever,
L. H. Bailey

Bailey, L. H. 1888. "Bailey, Liberty Hyde Jan. 19, 1888." Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/164238>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/306023>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.