My Dear Deane:

I rec'd your note on Carey's price the first of the week.
Thanks.

I left home Tuesday for Central New York and Cornell. I shall reach home to-day. I was sent for by the authorities of Cornell, who are pushing pretty hard to persuade me to locate there.

I am getting a little tired of this gadding. All winter I have been on the go. I have had no rest out of my vacation. College opens day after to-morrow and with it opens a year's work.
I had hoped to reach Cambridge
during some of my periphrinations,
but cannot now.

The cares studies which I have deferred for the last year and more were mostly completed before I left, and my
M. is now in Coulter's hands.
Let me hear from you oftener.

Yours as ever,
