My Dear Deane:

I shall be anxious to see your article on Dr. Gray. I am glad that one who knew and appreciated him so well is to write his biography for the Bulletin. I am informed that Thomas Meehan will write one for the March American Garden. The Garden will contain a cut made from the photograph which you once sent me.

I am hard at work now. Term is fairly under way.

Accept thanks for the synopses of Dr. Goodale's lectures. I shall look for them all. Also thanks for Manda's article.

You are developing into a veritable Japanese artist!

I have completed my Carex studies for this year, and at odd minutes I am now mounting.

Yours, tired, (G.P.M.)
