

S. J. Sardinian,
Lower St. Lawrence R., Aug. 30, 1888.

7:30 P.M.

My Dear Deane: This is my last Chance to throw you a line before reaching the Emerald Isle. The pilot leaves us to-night and mail is taken off. I came aboard Tuesday night at Montreal. We are having a nice sail down a mighty and picturesque river.

I hope to reach Londonderry a week from to-morrow. Shall stop over there until I get straightened up — should I need straightening — and then go down to Dublin.

Goodbye!

Yours &c
L. H. Bailey
