Dear Deane:

The print- rec'd and gone to the artist. I will have a drawing made from it, and the drawing photo-engraved.

The "half tone" process of reproducing photographs, like the Cerens gigantens, is a secret. I know only a few features of it. Ordinarily we make black pen drawings and these are photographed onto gelatine and the cuts are, I believe, etched out with acids.

Yours -
