St. Joseph, Mich., Aug 27 1893

My Dear Deane:

Yours of last
date from Jaffrey reached me in Chicago. I have been rustivating in the ^{musk} melon fields of this vicinity, the largest in the Northern States.
I struck one good field of 25 acres in prime condition which kept my jaws exercising for some hours. And as for peaches and all such
— there is really no end to them. I am anxious to know when you are coming to the big white city. Perhaps I can be there when you come.

Yours melon-cholic
