My Dear Deane:

Yes, those were good finds which Dr. Robinson got in Newfoundland, judging from the ones which he sent me. Amongst them was C. milian's var.
aurea, which I am
now convinced is a good species. I shall so describe it - sometime, although I have not yet decided upon a name for it.

I suppose that you have read of Dr. Cook's unfortunate Greenland Expedition of this Summer. Your humble servant missed going on it - only by a hair's breadth. I have the wildest desire to go to Greenland!

I am now planting
orchards at Arbutus!

Yours ever,
F. H. Bailey
