Dear Deane:
How are you? Yours of a week ago came in due season, but I have been in New York and Brooklyn & just got home this morning.
Your sketch of Bebb is the best thing you have written. There is much of Bebb's personality in it. It is most excellent.

I am doing nothing at the house (or at anything else, for that matter). The walls were finished and the roof put on last fall. I have not been there for two or three months. As soon as Spring opens, I shall finish it off, getting it ready for a visit from you and Mrs. D. in July.

Yours sincerely

L. V. Bailey
