

Jamestown
N.Y.

Aug. 29 1896

Dear Deane:

Just as I was skipping Hooper's day, your grapes came. I peeked in & saw that they were probably Labrusca type, & told one of my boys to photograph & press them.
Ever so much obliged.

Why did I go to Georgia?
Dear me! I had staid at home two weeks, almost,
and I got uneasy. Various parties in the South have long urged me to go and see the country, so I just put on my shoes and went. That was all.
Incidentally, I attended the meeting of the Ga.

Horticultural Socy, and that was the occasion of my going at that particular time. But I would have gone anyway. So I really had no reason for going. I wanted to go somewhere, told the wife & babies hallo, and jumped on the street car.

Do tell me how those sweet girl botanists are! I must know.

Thine, for keeps,

F. N. Bailey

Bailey, L. H. 1896. "Bailey, Liberty Hyde Aug. 29, 1896." Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/164204>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/306404>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.