D. A. ROOD,                      CONN.
Proprietor.

Oct. 31, 1898

My Dear Deane:

I don't see how my name could be of any use to your Club, although it would be a great honor to me to be a member of it. If the Club desires to take the risk, of course I should not object.

No, I don't believe that I shall be going east this winter. Boston is a good ways off for a stay-at-home body like me. If I do, I shall most certainly drop in on you.

I have driven ~~over~~ Here from Springfield, just to see the country. It is delightful!

Yours ever,

L. H. Bailey
