

Bailiwick

ON CAYUGA LAKE,
(P. O. ITHACA, N. Y.)

Aug. 26, 1900

Dear Deane:

Lycium halimifolium I should call
the plant you send.
The article I like. I hope it will do good.
Much obliged.

No, I do not own "To have & to hold", but - Mrs. B.
has read it & praises
it.

I am sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. D's father. I

Hope he will improve.
Mrs. B's mother is with us, and has been an invalid for a year or two; but she likes
the farm and is much better when we are here. Unfortunately,
we must go back
to town soon, for we are settling in a new house. We have built us a new home.

With you & Mrs.
D. would come to see
us. Thine,

F. H. B.
