Dear Deane:

Guess I did have
the world's work sent you, but I had forgotten it-; so it- is all O.K. Glad you enjoy
it- It's worth while to make Country Life when such good judges as you and
Mr Brewster like it.
There is some work
about it- I wish you

Could see our office, — then you could understand. I am now making a second edition of the Cyclo.

When are you coming out to Bailiwick to see the dug out where I live? Of course you are not to come without the better half. Come!
We will buy an extra
ham if you will notify us long enough in advance, and
meet you at the
