

Nantucket

Oct. 19. 1885.

My dear Mr. Deane,

I have collected a few asters which I will send by this same mail. As it is a month later than when you were here, you may not have seen them. What I want is for you to name them for me — nothing difficult about that, but I can not find the fifteen minutes that would be sufficient for the work —

Cannot find it here, and when I go home — !!!

I am inquiring about the leaves, and shall be able to report soon. I have just in a piece of E. cinerea
and also of E. tetralix.

Yours in great haste
Maria L. Owen.
