

Springfield, Nov. 27. 1888.

Dear Mr. Deane,

You can get a Catalogue of Miss S. F. Barnard, Athenaeum Library, Nantucket - price 75 cts. - postage paid.

I take up your refrain - of the "rain, rain, rain" but only to say that patience has worked her proper work with me, and I go & come in stormy if, like a broken duck. With all that, however, I often think of Mr. Morong, and am glad that he, for one, is out of this deluge. I have not heard the least thing from him - but that I didn't expect - nor about him, and I did think that the Torr. Bulletin would give us some inkling of his progress occasionally.

Yours very truly M. L. Owen.
