

Plandome, Mar. 21- 1913

Dear Mr. Deane,

The card within shall carry my Easter greetings to you and Mrs. Deane, and I shall write you a few lines besides.

Can you tell me the first name of Mr. Olney, a Providence botanist?
He died many years ago, but I told Mrs. Albertson (curator of the M-Nichell house) a rather putty story about him and she keeps it in mind for months, and asked me a little while ago to write it out which I am willing enough to do. And what can I say of him?

Was he "eminent" or "well-known" or "Good" or what was he? I never saw him but once.

I hear from Nantucket sometimes — not as often as I used to, for my old friends are dropping away. Mr. Starbuck died Feb. 22d at the age of 94, died of old age. Never had a pain or an ache, — took to her bed when too weak to be up, and was glad to be thus; she slept much, was happy when awake and finally just stopped breathing. It is a great loss when a friend of a lifetime goes.

I had a pleasant letter from Mrs. Batchelder today; she told me of the rare grosbeak that had been seen in Manchester.
Hoping that this may find you and Mrs. Deane well, Your sincere friend
Wm L. Owen
